Kent Tests

There will be two nationally-standardised assessment tests compiled and produced by Granada Learning Assessment.

There are strict regulations regarding the tests (ie it is illegal to copy or keep them) and coaching is not permitted.

Scores:

Scores will still be standardised, using a national standardisation. The score range on each paper will be 69 to 141. Your child is awarded three standardised scores: Maths, English and Reasoning. Last year children had to achieve a total of at least 320, with a score of no less than 106 in each.

This year's tests will be:

- a) English and Maths Test 2018 in multiple choice format (c.60 minutes plus admin time, two separate sections each with introductory practice items, English first);
- b) Reasoning Test 2018 in multiple choice format (c.60 minutes plus admin time, one Verbal Reasoning section and five Non-Verbal, separately timed with introductory practice items).

Pupils will also be required to complete a writing exercise under test conditions which will take 40 minutes. This will not be marked and is not something which will affect a pupil's standardised score: it is simply to ensure that at least one good, extended sample of a pupil's unaided written work is available should his or her assessment require further consideration.

Some example questions are posted on the Kent website (www.kent.gov.uk), and the papers themselves will have introductory drills and practice questions, but there will no practice test papers.

VERBAL REASONING TESTS

Verbal Reasoning tests mainly involve reasoning with words, and typically include question types principally concerned with the production of, use of and relationships between words. In some cases, these tests will also include questions that require the manipulation of letters or numbers.

Example 1.

The number codes 1235, 2356 and 1234 represent the words CROW, ROPE and CROP, but not in that order.

Find the number code for the word PEER.

Find the number code for the word PROW.

Find the number code for the word CREEP.

Example 2.

In each sentence below, a word of four letters is hidden at the end of one word and the beginning of the next word. Write the hidden word in the boxes, one letter in each box. The order of the letters must not be changed.

The class often listened to stories.

You will find the house along there.

The tall stranger managed to make friends quickly

Example 1.

The number codes 1235, 2356 and 1234 represent the words CROW, ROPE and CROP, but not in that order.

Find the number code for the word PEER. 5662

Find the number code for the word PROW. 5234

Find the number code for the word CREEP. 12665

Example 2.

In each sentence below, a word of four letters is hidden at the end of one word and the beginning of the next word. Write the hidden word in the boxes, one letter in each box. The order of the letters must not be changed.

The class often listened to stories. soft

You will find the house along there. seal

The tall stranger managed to make friends quickly germ

Writing Exercise

Pupils taking part in the Kent Test complete a writing exercise. The writing exercise is not a standardised test, but is set to give an indication of a child's ability to work independently and within time constraints, so it is completed under test conditions. It is not marked, but will be considered alongside other examples of normal classwork in certain cases. For the sake of consistency, the following rules will apply:

- The same stimuli will be given to pupils tested on the same day across the County, including a choice of titles to allow for fiction and non-fiction responses.
- 40 minutes will be allowed to complete the task, including 10 minutes' planning time. An additional 10 minutes will be allowed at the school's request for:
 - pupils with recognised physical or sensory disabilities which impede their writing;
 - pupils with specific learning difficulties who the school has identified as having Additional Educational Needs.

Special Access arrangements must be made by the school by 10 July 2018. If you feel your child has any of the above difficulties please make an appointment with Mrs Maynard (SENCo). This applies to children who are on the SEN register.

If such pupils normally also use a word processor, braille writer or the services of a scribe to complete free writing in class, the same facilities should be available to them during the exercise, though spellcheck/grammar checking programs may not be used. (In the same way, dictionaries should not be used by other candidates.) Putting exceptional arrangements in place for a child for this exercise only is unlikely to be helpful, as it takes time for them to become accustomed to a new way of working, and may add to the pressure of the test day.

The date for the Kent tests is:

Thursday

6 September 2018

Head Teacher Appeals

Head Teacher Appeals are submitted, and considered, as part of the PESE. This is an opportunity to refer exceptional cases to a Head Teacher Appeal Panel for professional consideration. There must be concrete evidence that a child's test scores have not done him or her justice. All Year 6 work will be submitted, and work from the summer term of Year 5. The unaided piece of writing is also considered.

This part of the process is completed before the assessment outcomes are emailed or posted to parents on Thursday 11 October 2018.

Parental Appeals can be submitted after Friday 1 March 2019, once school places have been allocated.

- If you are unsure of whether to submit your child for the tests you can speak to your child's teacher or a member of the senior leadership team.
- Decide whether you would like your son or daughter to sit the Kent Tests in September.
- Complete the 'Registration To Sit The Kent Test' form online at www.kent.gov.uk/ola. We would be happy to help you with this if you do not have access to a computer or would just like some assistance.
- Note the date of the Kent tests: Thursday 6 September 2018.
- Kent test results received in the post by parents. Online registrations will receive an email with the assessment decision on Thursday 11 October after 4pm.
- Parent Consultations take place in the Autumn 2018.
- The form which you select your preferences is the SCAF. This form will need to be submitted by Wednesday 31 October 2018 online. Again, we would be more than happy to assist you with your online application.
